RESIDENCY RECLASSIFICATION APPLICATION

Under North Carolina law, a person may qualify as a resident for tuition purposes in North Carolina, thereby being eligible for a tuition rate lower than that for non-residents for tuition purposes. Copies of the applicable law and of implementing regulations are available at the University library and www.northcarolina.edu/legal/residence/committee/manual/Residence_Manual_Aug_2010.pdf

In essence, the controlling North Carolina statute (G.S. 116-143.1) requires that “to qualify as a residence for tuition purposes, a person must have established a legal residence (domicile) in North Carolina and maintain that legal residence at least 12 months immediately prior to his or her classification as a resident for tuition purposes. “ G.S. 116-143.1 also set forth statutory definition, rules and special provisions for determining residence status for tuition purposes. These provisions include special rules with respect to persons who are married, in the military, minors, and employees of the UNC systems or are immediate relatives of deceased North Carolina emergency workers. Certain non-US citizens may also qualify for resident tuition status.
